

Create a quiet space.

Your child may not have much homework in kindergarten, but it is good to get in the practice of setting aside quiet time to work. Choose an out-of-the-way spot where your child can read or do projects.