Building Tomorrow Together

Exhibit Design

Opportunity	Description	Giving Level	Duration of Naming & Recognition
Level: Master Builder	Sponsorship of Construction Zone will involve the planning, design, and fabrication of a new exhibit that will reflect the current landscape of the construction industry, including the skilled trades, which literally shapes our world and impacts how we work, play, and live. A gift at this level allows us to begin breaking ground and moving ahead with construction of this new exhibit experience.	$1,000,000+	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10+ Years • Largest recognition on exhibit panel • Recognition on campaign wall of honor in lobby • Recognition on BCM exhibit webpage and social media • Annual Report
Level: Tradesperson	Within the reimagined Construction Zone exhibit, there will be a number of areas, each filled with engaging, hands-on components. A gift at this level will fund current and ongoing exhibit area development, and allow the Museum to move into fabrication of exhibit components.	$100,000-$999,000	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5+ Years • Large recognition on exhibit panel • Recognition on campaign wall of honor in lobby • Recognition on BCM exhibit webpage and social media • Annual Report
Level: Journeyman	Each exhibit is made up of a variety of hands-on, engaging components. A gift at this level allows us to further our development of components and testing prototypes with visitors.	$25,000-$99,999	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 3 Years • Recognition on exhibit panel • Annual Report
Level: Apprentice	A gift at this level gives the Museum the tools we need (both literal tools and figurative, in the form of content development and design support) to continue the work of crafting this new exhibit.	$10,000-$24,999	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2 Years • Recognition on exhibit panel • Annual Report
